“Just Be Fair”

In recent times the global media appears to dilute the influence of the Catholic Church by highlighting all the imperfections which surface in this humanly managed structure. The constant effort to emphasize what is wrong with the Church appears to outweigh the good that it does.

When was the last time you heard or read about the hundreds of thousands of volunteers, religious and lay working in the most difficult conditions around the world to bring food supplies, health care, development of survival skills, education of the young and spiritual values that will offer them a life hereafter? The gentle, humble workers out there, acting on behalf of their Catholic faith are the unsung heroes of the world!

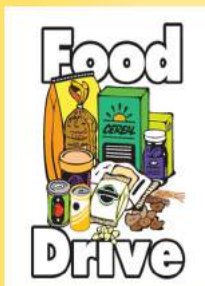

The Church and its committed members do not seek recognition. They serve because they believe. However, it becomes somewhat disheartening to have the good being performed by so many minimized because of the misbehavior of the few. Evil must be acknowledged and addressed. Likewise, good must be affirmed in its totality. Good will eventually outweigh and replace evil.

The Church has survived for 2,000 years, offering the message of eternal salvation to all people. Because of the human factor, it has had its bumps, but it still offers the same faith which Jesus imparted twenty centuries ago. No other civilization, government or institution has lasted that long. Is there a jealousy in the survivability of the Church when other entities have only a limited time span? Is the solid stance of the Church in protecting life and opposing abortion contrary to present day trends? Is the permissive culture of anything goes, so shallow and transient that it resents the rock solid values of our faith?

As a church, we are committed to going forward with the guidance of the Holy Spirit to provide all people with hope for this life and the next. We will do whatever we can to promote justice, peace and love among mankind. We have performed in the past and we are determined to do so in the future. We invite all peoples to join us in a world of peace and love. We pray that God’s will be done in all things. May we also ask God to soften the hearts of all media persons so that they see the good that is being done by so many persons everywhere. Good inevitably prevails.

Blessings,
Father Vincent T. Kelly

Next Sunday, June 16th

- To benefit those served by the St. Vincent De Paul Society of Blessed Sacrament Church.
  - 792 clients, representing 2568 people, were assisted in May.
- Thank you for helping feed these members of God’s family.

The House of God is our privileged location to meet the Lord. May we take collective ownership to assure that it is at all times maintained in a condition of respect and welcome. Kindly replace booklets in the pew book holders and gather any loose papers.

CLEANLINESS IS NEXT TO GODLINESS

We also ask for your assistance with your weekly donation envelopes. Your continued generosity and support of the parish are truly appreciated. Please simply seal the envelope with the glued tab. The use of tape, staples and stickers delays the processing of your kind donation.
