

Saint John the Baptist Catholic Church

4595 Bayview Drive Fort Lauderdale, FL 33308

July 8, 2018—Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Nothing humbles and breaks the heart of a sinner
like mercy and love.
Souls that converse much with sin
and wrath, may be much terrified;
but souls that converse much with grace and mercy, will be much humbled.

~ Thomas Brooks

Archdiocese Of Miami

Office of the Archbishop

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Pope Francis has challenged us to "Be Shepherds ..., in the midst of your people like Jesus the Good Shepherd." Soon I will encourage you as Shepherd of your parish to participate in the annual Black and Indian Mission Collection.

This collection has for the last 134 years, changed the landscape of evangelization and education efforts for Native Americans, Alaskan Americans and African Americans throughout the United States. Our financial support of the Collection is the mechanism that affects the Church's evangelization efforts. We all agree that never have the needs for the Native Americans, Alaskan Americans and African Americans communities been so great. History tells us that lasting change to a community can all come through faith, hope and charity.

Historically, evangelization efforts by Churches and schools among African Americans, Native Americans, Eskimo and Aleut communities, are funded by the Collection's grant awards, which are instrumental in the building of their Christian communities and sharing the joy of knowing Christ. Your support has helped educate African American and Native American seminarians for priestly service to our Catholic communities. It has also helped begin a new religious community for service to Native Americans in Arizona.

Education is fundamental in changing the mores and morals of a society. Your monetary assistance provides opportunities for a solid Catholic education in our Indian and Black Catholic mission schools, allows the purchase of catechetical materials and bibles, and provides for the formation of lay leadership, to name just a few ways the collection supports evangelization.

On the weekend of July 14th and 15th, 2018 all will be asked to participate in the Black and Indian Mission Collection. Together we build up the Church and announce the Good News of Jesus Christ. I ask everyone in the Archdiocese of Miami to make a sacrificial gift to the 2018 Black and Indian Mission Collection. Your generosity to this collection reflects the depths of your faith and your willingness to help our brothers and sisters in need; it is an opportunity to evangelize and further the missionary cause of bringing the Gospel to our African American and Native American family.

Thank you for your prayerful support of the Black and Indian Mission Collection.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

SECOND COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND, JULY 14TH & 15TH

FOR 2018-19 PROGRAM

Religious Ed. PK—8th Grade

KINGDOM OF HAPPINESS:

LIVING THE BEATITUDES IN EVERYDAY LIFE

Classes are Thursdays, 9:30am or 7pm starting in Sept. To register, mail your $25 check payable to St. John the Baptist Church (bible study in check memo) to the rectory. Please include your email.

All registrations will be online.

Payment can be made online with your credit card. If you were registered for the program last year, you should have received an email that contains your login credentials. To register as a new family visit the webpage: <https://parishtrack.aquinas-sta.org/ccd>

COMMUNITY FOOD DRIVE: NEXT SUNDAY, JULY 15TH

The food pantry often is sparse in the summer months when we are far from the holidays giving spirit and many people are vacationing. Your generous donations help the St. Vincent de Paul out of Blessed Sacrament Church continue to serve the needy of our community. Please bring your non-perishable food items to church next weekend.
