Every April, Catholic parishes and schools across the U.S. participate in National Child Abuse Prevention Month. While dioceses work year-round to prevent abuse, a special emphasis is placed on the importance of learning how to protect the vulnerable from this evil this month. Together, for the next nine days, let's pray that the vulnerable are protected from abuse, and that survivors of abuse may be accompanied on their paths to healing.

The House of God is our privileged location to meet the Lord. May we take collective ownership to assure that it is at all times maintained in a condition of respect and welcome. To assist our volunteers who sanitize after Masses, please be sure to remove any bulletins, missalettes, or personal items when you leave your pew. We kindly ask you to discard or take home masks, gloves, and other items used during the Mass.

STEWARDSHIP
 MAXIMIZING GOD'S BLESSINGS FOR HIS GLORY

Archdiocese Of Miami
Office of the Archbishop

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In their 2000 pastoral letter Responsibility, Rehabilitation, and Restoration, the bishops of the United States called the faithful to embrace an approach to criminal justice that takes into account the dignity of crime victims and their families, communities, and offenders.

The Catholic Home Missions-funded Diocese of Santa Rosa is answering this call for an approach that upholds justice and healing in its six counties of northwestern California, stretching from Napa in the south along the coastline to the Oregon border. The diocese's Catholic Restorative Justice Ministries program (www.restorejusticesantarosa.org) works to fulfill the bishops' vision through various activities that include support for inmates reentering society, as well as pastoral ministries for crime victims and their families, justice system personnel, and inmates. The program's broad range of goals are being implemented, expanded, and refined yearly with financial assistance from the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. When you participate in the appeal, you join in the Church's healing mission of mercy to all.

Your support of this appeal makes a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters right here in the United States. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the appeal this year.

Thank you for strengthening the Church at home.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas G. Wenski
Archbishop of Miami

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

We are happy to celebrate the first communion of our Religious Education students on April 24th. May this be an occasion for all parishioners to reflect on the precious gift they have available in receiving the Body and Blood of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. Please keep our students in your prayers.

Next Sunday, April 25th!

Every two seconds someone in the U.S. needs blood but only about 3% of eligible people donate blood yearly. Help save a life and donate blood! The blood drive bus will be in the south parking lot from 8:30am to 1:30pm.
