ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

For your protection we ask that you do not leave any valuables in your vehicle.

“What’s in a Name!”

All of us have names by which we are identified. The name evidences something of which we are: our parentage, our culture, time in history, or even religious identity. Our parents likely selected our names for us. We did not have input and their choice summarized what they wanted and thought appropriate for us. Luckily a pattern of numbers or bar-codes were not fashionable when we came on the scene. We might have been just a number! We can only imagine how those of the future will be identified.

Through the human biological system, which the Lord designed, we inherit the genes of our parents and other ancestors. The impact of that parental transference is enormous. At times we might seek or wish to break with the past for some reason, but we cannot deny our lineage. It just is and we are who we are. We are part of an ongoing family which began centuries ago. We are privileged to “carry the flag” in our day and to pass it on to the next generation in time.

In a rapidly changing world, it is essential that we have these stabilizing ties to the past. However, we require more guidance and development to ensure our happiness in the future than is provided by our heredity. It is here that we look to our fathers, who develop our spirit and mold our character. It is our interactions with each other that evolve our persons beyond our set of genes. It is the guideposts set and examples of those we admire, our dads, who lead us to be the individuals we are. May we humbly acknowledge their contribution to our spiritual essence.

On this Father’s Day, we appropriately give thanks for the gift of life we receive from our parents. We recognize the example, assistance and encouragement that our fathers provide us. They, with our mothers, are our connection to our past. May we appreciatively reflect on the treasure that is our familial lineage. But more importantly, may we give thanks to our fathers for their loving support and dedication to the development of our spiritual being. God bless all our fathers!

Blessings,
Father Vincent T. Kelly

HAPPY FATHER’S DAY

May we extend sincere thanks to all the fathers among us for their love, support and witness. They are a vital part of the life of the family, the community, and the church.

May they be blessed by the Heavenly Father. We commend the fathers who have gone before us. May they reside in eternal peace with their God.

Blessed indeed is the man who hears many gentle voices call him father. ~ Lydia M. Child

Our Second Grade students will receive their FIRST HOLY COMMUNION on June 27th.

Please keep them in your prayers.

Second Collection next weekend, June 28th
Peter’s Pence Collection

Funds from this collection support Pope Francis’ charitable outreach to the suffering and marginalized around the world.

The Peter’s Pence collection is taken up worldwide to help Pope Francis provide relief to victims of war, religious persecution, and natural disasters. More information about the collection can be found at www.usccb.org/ppc.

Heavenly Father, you entrusted your Son Jesus, the child of Mary, to the care of Joseph, an earthly father. Bless all fathers as they care for their families. Give them strength and wisdom, tenderness and patience; support them in the work they have to do, protecting those who look to them, as we look to You for love and salvation, through Jesus Christ our rock and defender, in union with the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.

St. Joseph, Pray for all our Fathers, Amen.
