SECOND
COLLECTION
NEXT WEEKEND.
JULY 11TH & 12TH

Archdiocese Of Miami
Office of the Archbishop

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Next weekend I encourage you to participate in the annual Black and Indian Mission Collection. This collection has for the last 136 years, changed the landscape of evangelization and education efforts for Native Americans, Alaskan Americans and African Americans throughout the United States. Our financial support of the Collection is the mechanism that affects the Church's evangelization efforts. We all agree that never have the needs for the Native Americans, Alaskan Americans and African Americans communities been so great. History tells us that lasting change to a community can all come through faith, hope and charity.

Historically, evangelization efforts by Churches and schools among African Americans, Native Americans, Eskimo and Aleut communities, are funded by the Collection's grant awards, which are instrumental in the building of their Christian communities and sharing the joy of knowing Christ. Your support has helped educate African American and Native American seminarians for priestly service to our Catholic communities. It has also helped begin a new religious community for service to Native Americans in Arizona.

Education is fundamental in changing the mores and morals of a society. Your monetary assistance provides opportunities for a solid Catholic education in our Indian and Black Catholic mission schools, allows the purchase of catechetical materials and bibles, and provides for the formation of lay leadership, to name just a few ways the collection supports evangelization.

Together we build up the Church and announce the Good News of Jesus Christ. I ask everyone in the Archdiocese of Miami to make a sacrificial gift to the 2020 Black and Indian Mission Collection. Your generosity to this collection reflects the depths of your faith and your willingness to help our brothers and sisters in need; it is an opportunity to evangelize and further the missionary cause of bringing the Gospel to our African American and Native American family.

Thank you for your prayerful support of the Black and Indian Mission Collection.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

The Archdiocese of Miami has officially assigned the Reverend Patrick Naughton as Parochial vicar (Assistant pastor) to St. John the Baptist parish effective July 1, 2020. Father Naughton will be most welcome to join our parish family.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of St. John the Baptist Parish is to nurture a community of faith in Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior. By means of worship, study, service, and community, each individual is invited to participate in the life of the parish family. Every person has a benefit to receive and gifts to share for the overall good of souls in this location of the Kingdom of God.

For your protection we ask that you do not leave any valuables in your vehicle.
